REPORT ON "READING AND REFLECTIONG ON THE TAXT"

In the post pandemic situation to make everyone active and energetic, the Counselling Cell Gulab Bai Yadav Smriti Shiksha Mahavidyalaya, Borawan organized an Expert Talk on the topic "Reading and Reflecting on The Text" on 01st September 2021.

The Session was sharply begun at 11:00 pm. All the faculty members and students to get new knowledge on Reflective and critical Thinking. Dr. Madhuri Paliwal, Principal, Sardar patel Shiksha Mahavidyalaya, Sendhwa Madhya Pradesh, was the resource person. Dr.Parinita Ratnaparkhi, Assistant Professor, Gulab Bai Yadav Smriti Shiksha Mahavidyalaya, Borawan delivered the welcome address and introduced the resource person.

The resource person started his presentation by explaining about the meaning and nature of Reflective Thinking. she talked about reflective thinking is an active, persistent, and careful consideration of a belief or supposed form of knowledge, of the grounds that support that knowledge, and the further conclusions to which that knowledge leads. Learners are aware of and control their learning by actively participating in reflective thinking – assessing what they know, what they need to know, and how they bridge that gap – during learning situations. critical thinking involves a wide range of thinking skills leading toward desirable outcomes and reflective thinking focuses on the process of making judgments about what has happened. However, reflective thinking is most important in prompting learning during complex problem-solving situations because it provides students with an opportunity to step back and think about how they actually solve problems and how

Prof. S.K. Tiwari
Principal

a particular set of problem-solving strategies is appropriated for achieving their goal. She told reflection is metacognition. Broadly defined, metacognition is thinking about thinking. Any reader who is able to gain from her reading usually engages in Metacognitive activities. These activities don't develop naturally but have to be instilled during the learning process of a student, especially when a student is engaging in an activity like reading. Many teachers often feel that students use Metacognitive strategies while reading. Once a girl was asked, "what was she thinking while she was reading?"; like most children of her class she replied, "I am not thinking; I am reading" In the context of reading, Metacognitive skill usually denotes two aspects: cognition about reading and text comprehension. The use of Metacognitive skills is what distinguishes a skilled reader from that of a beginning reader. She discussed about the importance of student feedback and peer observation. She When students are faced with a perplexing problem, reflective thinking helps them to become more aware of their learning progress, choose appropriate strategies to explore a problem, and identify the ways to build the knowledge they need to solve the problem. The KaAMS model of PBL incorporates various components to prompt students' reflective thinking during the learning process. insisted on the benefits of reflective practice. She shared theory of Kolb's learning cycle and Gibb's reflective cycle. She gave some useful tips to write and maintain reflective journal which could be a powerful practice for the professional development of teachers. Finally vote of thanks delivered by Surnal Narve , Assistant professor and meeting ended sharply at 2:00 pm.
