Report One Day Seminar on "Transforming Education in India"

GBYSSM organised a Special on "Transforming education in India" for the B.Ed. & M.Ed. students of Gulab Bai Yadav smriti Shiksha Mahavidyalaya, Borawan 01 November 2021. The resource person of the session was Dr. Madhvi Shah, Assistant Professor, Vaishnav Teachers Training College Indore, Madhvi Shah started her session with the importance of the current face of Education in the nation is actually turning out to be a major "silent hindrance" for India's track to greater development. While all the attention is on social-political issues, it should quickly be turned on to educational reforms. Education has the power to all solve issues (wars, unemployment, waste management, corruption etc), in the long run, and a must for a developing country like India it cannot be ignored, not to say it is being ignored, India spends a lot of Education. She Discussed on Small steps can be taken if the whole "revolution" seems unfeasible. Sports and Yoga too are great ideas that very well should be incorporated in the school curriculum.

Dr. Surendra Kumar Tiwari Principal, Gulab Bai Yadav smriti Shiksha Mahavidyalaya, Borawan congratulated all the Bed. & M.Ed. Students and organizers staff for successful completion of Last session of seminar.

01/02/2022 to 09/02/2022 (Micro Teaching Practice in Groups)
Class : B.Ed. Second Year
No. of Students Present : 05

Description of the method

Since the students came to the college to give their answer scripts of II internal examination I have informed them earlier and took a class for them on Micro Teaching. The various skills and steps of Micro Teaching are taught to the students with examples. Students have received a basic idea of Micro teaching and the writing of a lesson plan for Micro teaching was taught to the students.

The college reopened on September 1st as per the government guidelines and Micro teaching practice was given to the students. Students were divided into two groups and they wrote five lesson plans for micro teaching. The lesson plans were corrected and the students were instructed to use appropriate devices. They taught the lessons and were observed by their peers. Give feedback orally as well as in the coding sheet. Students carried out the corrections in the next cycle.
